

ProVision&Enjoy

glass writing boards and conference cabinets

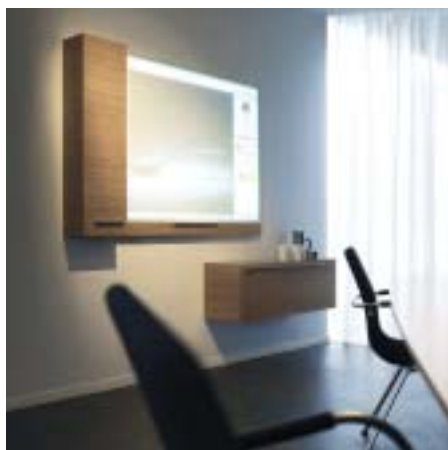

CHORUS

ProVision

ProVision glass writing boards are distinguishable by their elegant slim line, and handsome anodised aluminium chamfered edge detail. Wall mounted they have a particular application in cellular offices and small to medium sized conference rooms. The magnetic glass surface is suitable for dry markers as well as image projection. A clear acrylic pen tray and satin chrome magnets are available as accessories.

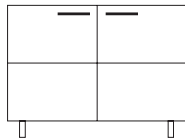

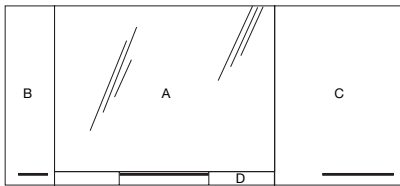

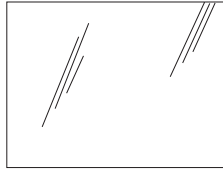

Enjoy

Enjoy is a range of beautifully made and finely detailed conference wall cabinets which may be used in conjunction with square edged magnetic glass image projection surface or just glass writing boards.

Comprising of a side storage cabinet, a flipchart or glass writing board cabinet, a shallow marker pen drawer and a fall front wall storage module.

They are available as standard in birch, light oak, wenge or zebrano veneers.
